

The CEHD CPS
Committee Presents:

Strategies for Creativity

Friday, February 16th, 2007

10:00 am to 12:30 pm
301C Bailey Hall
Lunch will be Provided

You are invited to the CPS February Staff Development Event!

Join us as we discover our creative potential and learn techniques to increase our creativity!

What is creativity? Can you be creative and not be an artist? (Yes!) Why is creativity important? (Creative people are productive problem-solvers.) How can creativity help you? Come to this workshop and you'll find out!

Open your mind to new possibilities: Have you ever been stuck on a problem, one you didn't know how to solve? You will learn group and individual techniques that you may use to work through various challenges:

- * mind-mapping
- * writing exercises
- * brainstorming

Join us as we learn new Strategies for Creativity.
When tried-and-true solutions don't work, creativity helps you bridge the gap!

About the Presenter: Lanna Lee Maheux is an award-winning balloon twister and clown, trainer, actress and improv artiste who facilitates workshops on balloon twisting, improvisation public speaking and creativity.

Snow Date: February 23rd, 2007

RSVP Required by Wednesday, February 14th to Lanna Maheux-Quinn
